A NEW CONFEDERACY.

The Programme of the Army of Occupation.

New York, 8.—World's Washington.

A gentleman here, who claims to be specially informed with reference to the proposed invasion of Mexico, says that the purpose of the movement which will go on despite the governments interference, is to divide the territory of the Mexican government into the states of Sonora, Chihuahua and Sinaloa, in the southwestern part of Mexico, and to convert them into an independent confederacy.

The beneficiaries of the scheme, he says, are to be the inhabitants themselves of those states, and the army of occupation is to be composed of the owners of Southern New Mexico and Arizona.

The inhabitants themselves are to be benefited by cutting and retaining for themselves the large revenues of their ports, which now accrue entirely to the benefit of the dry of Mexico. They say they have no interest in common with the other states of the republic, and do not understand why they should be included in the same.

It is a scheme, they say, to make sacrifices for which they get no return; on the other hand the miners long for the peace of the dry of Mexico, and they say they have no interest in common with the other states of the republic, and do not understand why they should be included in the same.
